

4:00-5:00 p.m.(JST), November 9 (Mon), 2020

Application: Zoom

Language: English

★Scholarship Program★

Kyoto iUP (International Undergraduate Program)
Online Information SessionEnrollment
2021

Schedule:

- Greetings from Kyoto iUP faculty members
- Introduction of Kyoto University & Kyoto iUP
- Mini lecture “Why study the Liberal Arts?”
by Prof. Julius Bautista, Center for Southeast Asian Studies (CSEAS)
- Q&A

Registration: <https://forms.gle/pG7GqBGHKRfBEu78A>

*Up to 480 people, on a first-come-first-served basis

About mini lecture

Kyoto University offers a wide variety of liberal arts and sciences courses from a basic to advanced level. What do you think is liberal arts education? What is expected of students and teachers? In this mini lecture, a faculty member who teaches a liberal arts and sciences course will talk about the significance of learning liberal arts.

JOIN US!

Registration

A Unique Opportunity for Undergraduate Study in Japan

- ◆ 4.5-year program comprising a six-month preparatory course followed by four years of undergraduate studies
- ◆ Graduates earn a bachelor's degree in their chosen field of specialization
- ◆ No Japanese language proficiency required at the outset
- ◆ Intensive Japanese language training throughout the program which enables students to acquire academic-level language proficiency
- ◆ Financial supports including admission/tuition fee waivers and scholarships of up to JPY 120,000 per