What Makes an Effective Grant Proposal?

A good proposal allows the reviewer to grasp the research story at a glance.

This English seminar will walk you through the KAKENHI evaluation system and provide practical storytelling and writing tips for making an effective grant proposal. Most suitable for early stage foreign researchers who are applying for KAKENHI Wakate and Kiban C categories.

Join us to find out how an effective storytelling can help you write effective proposal!

Organized by Institute for the Advanced Study of Human Biology (WPI-ASHBi)
