New Frontier of Student Exchange between Japanese and African Universities

► Background

Innovative Africa Program (Innovative Africa: Educational Networking Programs for Human Resource Development in Africa's SDGs) will host "New Frontier of Student Exchange between Japanese and African Universities: the second IAfP Africa Japan University Education Exchange Meeting." This meeting will be held to promote student exchange and educational interaction between major African universities and Japanese universities. The meeting particularly aims to deepen understanding between Africa and Japan by sharing information on the current state of education and interactions. The first session will be conducted in Japanese by Japanese professors and experts at African Universities. The second session will be in English, and eight Universities from Africa and Japan will introduce their own institutions.
