KURENAI: the Information Repository at Kyoto University

The Kyoto University Research Information Repository (KURENAI) is operated by the Kyoto University Library Network, containing and preserving peer-reviewed journal articles, theses, departmental bulletin papers and the full range of other scholarly works produced at Kyoto University, with the purpose of making them available to the public via the web. As of 2010, the repository has accumulated over 80,000 articles and 100 journals. Over 1.1 million items have been downloaded.

The KURENAI is regarded highly among institutional repositories throughout the world. It was ranked the number 1 repository in Japan and 8th in the world by the “Ranking Web of World Repositories” conducted in July 2011, by the Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Cientificas, a research institute in Spain.

Kyoto University Website

The Kyoto University website provides up-to-date information and news about the university to the general public, with a particular concern for the university's broad range of stakeholders, including not only students, faculty, staff and alumni, but also the industrial sector and taxpaying Japanese citizens. The site features the latest reports on the university's education and research undertakings, international cooperation, industry-academia collaboration, and local and international contribution and outreach activities. The university's financial and administrative information is also made publicly available via the site.

The website enables users to access various resources provided by Kyoto University, such as digital versions of university publications and online lectures. In order to comprehensively cover the extensive and diverse activities of the university, most individual faculties and graduate schools also operate their own websites to provide detailed information on their organization and activities. Those sites may be accessed via the main site.
