National Taiwan University (NTU) is the flagship university of Taiwan. Dedicated to excellence and leadership since 1928, National Taiwan University has contributed significantly to Taiwan's rapid development into one of the world's most competitive economies and democratic societies. Over the years, the University has acquired a reputation for academic excellence and cutting-edge research right in the heart of Asia.

NTU trains the most outstanding students in Taiwan. It is home to a lively community of more than 30,000 students (17,000 undergraduate and 15,000 graduate) developing their talents across 11 colleges, 2 professional schools, 54 departments, 103 graduate institutes and 66 research centers. On every campus, students can take advantage of the fullest range of academic programs in Taiwan.

The University also benefits from Taiwan's rich Chinese heritage and strategic regional position, offering initiatives and solutions that bridge East and West. Among NTU's many popular courses are its widely acclaimed Chinese language programs.
