

Fraud Prevention Awareness Month

Period: November to December 2022

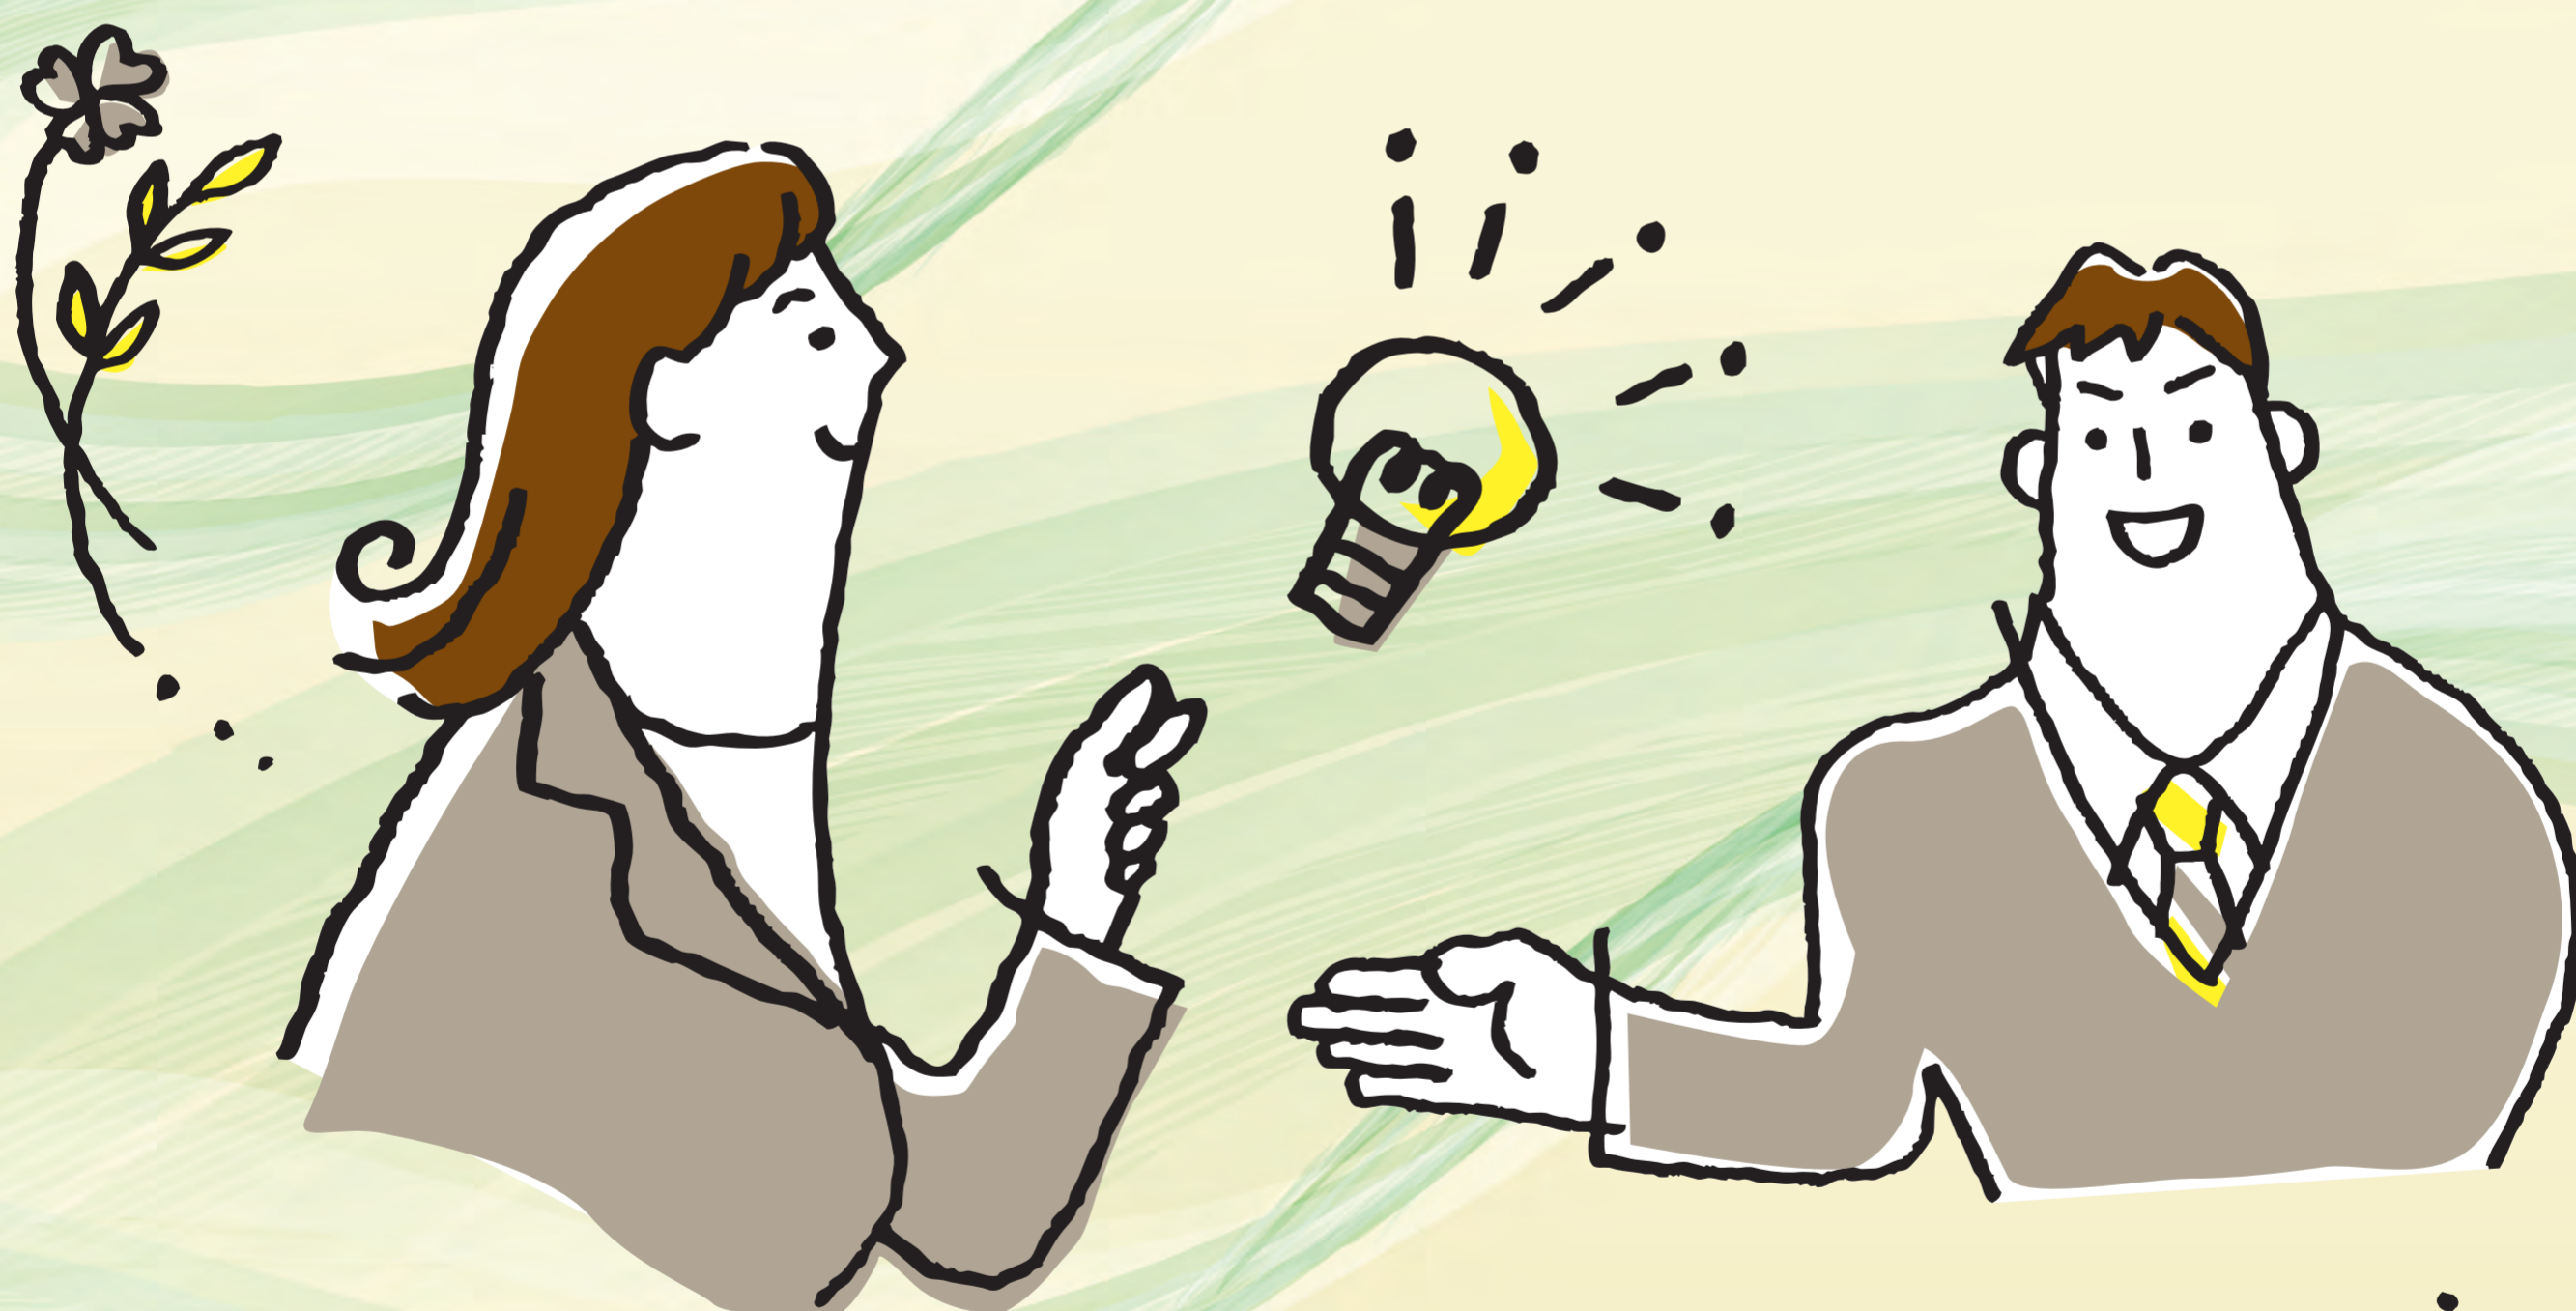

京都大学
KYOTO UNIVERSITY

Do you think that Kyoto University provides an environment in which faculty members find it easy to ask administrative staff members if anything about research fund paperwork is unclear? (From a survey of faculty members)

Frank and open communication in the laboratory and work environment is the first step towards fraud prevention

A revolving campaign to eradicate fraudulent research fund use will visit selected faculties and departments again this year.

Please feel free to talk to our staff if you have any concerns—no matter how small
